CV

My name is Faris Muratović, born on June 1, 1996 in Zenica. I finished elementary school at Musa Cazim Catic Primary School in Zenica.

After graduating from elementary school, I enrolled in the First Gymnasium of Zenica, where as in Primary School, I recorded excellent results throughout my education. During my studies at the gymnasium I have participated in municipal and cantonal competitions both in the natural sciences and social sciences, for which I have received several awards. What I would like to point out is that during my studies at the gymnasium I was a participant of projects organized by the Goethe Institute in Sarajevo on several occasions and on several occasions visited Germany where I was also rewarded and commended. Staying in Germany allowed me to further hone my German language skills.

After graduating from High School, I enrolled at the Faculty of Law of the University of Zenica, which I finish in 2019 with an average grade of 9.2.

I received the Charter of the Rector of the University of Zenica for my contribution to the development of science during my studies at the Faculty of Law, University of Zenica.

What I particularly want to point out is my participation in the Zenica Law School team in May 2018 at the International Criminal Court Moot Court Competition (ICCMCC), held in The Hague, The Netherlands, at the International Criminal Code court. During this competition, involving 67 teams from the world's largest universities, I won third place in the individual competition as the third best speaker in front of victims' advocates.

In 2019 I also participated in the said competition as a member of the team of the Faculty of Law in Zenica when we achieved a remarkable result in the team competition.

During the 2018/2019 school year. I was selected as a student demonstrator in the International Criminal Law course.

By a decision of the Senate of the University of Zenica, I was selected as a teaching assistant at the Civic Chair of the Faculty of Law in Zenica.

I am currently a full-time student of the second cycle of education at the Faculty of Law, Zenica, Department of Civil Law.

Zenica, 01/22/2020. Faris Muratović
